

Greater Morning Star Apostolic Ministries

Message Development and Preparation

FINAL EXAM

- 1.) The process of writing out all of your unorganized thoughts, ideas, etc. is called _____.
- 2.) Explain the difference between an interpretation and a revelation.
- 3.) A summary of a written work or speech, or preliminary draft analyzed in heading and subheadings is called an _____.
- 4.) Prepare a mini-sermon in the following format:
  - a. Write a purpose statement (one sentence) explaining your subject.
  - b. Develop the outline for your mini-sermon.
  - c. Write a one-page written sermon from that outline. Remember to include the plan of salvation - never preach without including it.
  - d. List the scriptures you used to support your text. List resources/study guides you used to research your sermon. Use more than the King James Bible.

Note: For your mini-sermon, you may use one that God gave you or you may use the following subject:

"The Gospel of Jesus Christ"